WELCOME TO LAZIO

REGION OF ROME, HEART OF EUROPE
AND CENTRE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN AREA

WHY LAZIO

Lazio boasts a geopolitical position of global importance:
in the heart of Europe and at the center of the Mediterranean region, a crossroad towards the Middle East and South-East Asia.

Lazio is the 2nd Italian Region for Gross Domestic Product (GDP) with 239 Bn euros (2023), contributing to 11% of Italian national GDP.

Lazio is the Italian Region with the highest level of specialization in manufacturing and in high-tech knowledge intensive sectors.

Lazio's share of exports in global leading sectors is twice the national average (in percentage terms 72% vs 32%).

LAZIO, A CONNECTED REGION

LAZIO REGION IS A STRATEGIC LOGISTICAL PLATFORM IN ITALY AND EUROPE

2 International Airports

(Fiumicino and Ciampino, over 50 million passengers per year). Fiumicino Leonardo Da Vinci Airport is the first stopover in Italy and the first European airport in terms of traveler satisfaction.

Civitavecchia Port is the major Italian touristic port, the 2nd in Europe and 7th in the world for number of passengers (3 million per year). It boasts the handling 10 million tons of goods a year.

2 main railway stations (Termini and Tiburtina) which guarantee high speed rail connections with all major Italian and European cities. Lazio is part of the Trans-European Networks - Transport (TEN-T).

Main Highways: A1 Milano-Roma-Napoli, A12 Roma-Civitavecchia, A24 Roma-L'Aquila. The extension of the road network in Lazio Region consists of approximately 10 thousand kilometers, of which 473 are motorways and 553 national roads.
